

Your Timeline - ceremony with us!

Every wedding is unique, and the flow of your day will depend on your chosen ceremony time and location. Here's an example of how your special day could look with a 1pm ceremony at Tyn Dwr Hall.

8.00am/10.00am - Dressing Room Check-In

If there's no wedding the day before, you can access the Dressing Room from 8am; otherwise, it's available from 10am. Settle in with your wedding party, enjoying drinks and pastries as you transform into your vision of perfection.

11.30am - Partner Arrival

Your partner arrives, ensuring the Dressing Room remains your private sanctuary. This allows each of you to focus on your final preparations, enjoy some photography, and relax before guests start arriving.

12.00pm - Guest Arrival

Guests begin to arrive, greeted with drinks at the bar and a chance to explore the stunning Main Hall. If there's no wedding the day before, room check-in is from 12pm; otherwise, check-in will open at 2pm.

12.30pm - Registrar Meeting

The registrars will meet with you both individually to confirm details and ensure everything is ready for the ceremony.

12.45pm - Bar Closes

We'll kindly close the bar and look after guests' drinks as they make their way to the ceremony space, eagerly awaiting your arrival.

12.50pm - Bridal/Groom Party Reveal

Bridesmaids or groomsmen gather at the bottom of the staircase for a breathtaking dress or suit reveal moment—always a highlight of the day!

1.00pm - The Ceremony

Filled with love, laughter, and promises, your ceremony marks the official start of your married life together.

1.30pm - Confetti and Drinks Reception

Celebrate your first moments as newlyweds with a joyful confetti shot, followed by drinks, canapes and mingling with your guests.

3.00pm - Guests Called to the Garden Room

Guests take their seats in the Garden Room, ready for the much-anticipated Wedding Breakfast.

3.15pm - Couple's Grand Entrance

You're introduced as a married couple to rapturous applause, and the Wedding Breakfast begins.

5.15pm - Speeches and Cake Cutting

Speeches can take place either before or after the meal, depending on your preference. We allow 10-15 minutes per speech.

6.30pm - A Little Time

With the meal finished, guests have some time to freshen up, mingle, and stretch their legs while we prepare the Garden Room & Ballroom for the evening celebrations.

7.00pm - Evening Party Begins

The Ballroom transforms into a party space, complete with your chosen band or DJ. Evening guests arrive and are welcomed by you and your partner.

8.00pm - First Dance Share your first dance as a married couple—a truly magical moment before the party kicks off!

9.00pm - Evening Food Served

Evening food is served to keep energy levels high and help everyone recharge for more dancing and celebrations.

11.45pm - Last Orders

The bar calls for last orders as the evening draws to a close.

12.00am - Carriages

The party wraps up. Non-resident guests leave for the night, while resident guests are welcome to continue socialising in the Main Hall by the fire or retreat to their luxurious rooms for some well-deserved rest.

2.00am - Bed Time

Time for some rest & recuperation. 8:00–9:00am – Breakfast for Residents Guests staying overnight enjoy a delicious Welsh breakfast.

10.00am - Farewell

Final goodbyes are exchanged as you and your partner depart to begin your married life together, filled with love, joy, and memories to cherish forever.

Your Timeline - ceremony at a place of worship!

Every wedding is unique, and the flow of your day will depend on your chosen ceremony time and location. Here's an example of how your special day could look with a 12:30pm ceremony at a place of worship.

8.00am/10.00am - Dressing Room Check-In

If there's no wedding the day before, you can access the Dressing Room from 8am; otherwise, it's available from 10am. Settle in with your wedding party, enjoying drinks and pastries as you transform into your vision of perfection.

11:50pm - Bridal/Groom Party Reveal

Bridesmaids or groomsmen gather at the bottom of the staircase for a breathtaking dress or suit reveal moment—always a highlight of the day!

12.00pm - Getting you to the Church on time

Using your booked transport, get comfortable in a limo with all your party, or in separate cars in style and start to make your way to your place of worship. This time is often an emotional one for last minute good lucks and proud chats.

12.30pm - The Ceremony

Filled with love, laughter, faith and promises, your ceremony marks the official start of your married life together.

1.00-1.30pm - Confetti and pictures

Church ceremonies can be anything from half an hour to 2 hours, so make sure you speak to your ceremony leader so you know how this will affect the rest of your timings.

As you'll be in a beautiful and meaningful space, you'll likely want some pictures in and around the building with your nearest and dearest while everyone else slowly makes their way to us. We'll welcome everyone with a smile and if you wish, we can have the bar open too!

2.00pm - Head back

Using your transport make your way back to Tyn Dwr, consider having a bottle of bubbly during your journey so you can celebrate just the two of you, happy in the knowledge that you did it!

2.30pm - More confetti and Drinks Reception

We'll gather all your party in the best spot for your arrival where you can have another confetti shot followed by beautiful photographs exploring the venue. Celebrate your first moments as newlyweds with drinks, canapes and mingling with your guests.

4.00pm - Guests Called to the Garden Room

Guests take their seats in the Garden Room, ready for the much-anticipated Wedding Breakfast.

4.15pm - Couple's Grand Entrance

You're introduced as a married couple to rapturous applause, and the Wedding Breakfast begins.

6.15pm - Speeches and Cake Cutting

Speeches can take place either before or after the meal, depending on your preference. We allow 10-15 minutes per speech.

7.00pm - A Little Time

With the meal finished, guests have some time to freshen up, mingle, and stretch their legs while we prepare the Garden Room & Ballroom for the evening celebrations.

7.30pm - Evening Party Begins

The Ballroom transforms into a party space, complete with your chosen band or DJ. Evening guests arrive and are welcomed by you and your partner.

8.00pm - First Dance Share your first dance as a married couple—a truly magical moment before the party kicks off!

9.00pm - Evening Food Served

Evening food is served to keep energy levels high and help everyone recharge for more dancing and celebrations.

11.45pm - Last Orders

The bar calls for last orders as the evening draws to a close.

12.00am - Carriages

The party wraps up. Non-resident guests leave for the night, while resident guests are welcome to continue socialising in the Main Hall by the fire or retreat to their luxurious rooms for some well-deserved rest.

2.00am - Bed Time

Time for some rest & recuperation. 8:00–9:00am – Breakfast for ResidentsGuests staying overnight enjoy a delicious Welsh breakfast.

10.00am - Farewell

Final goodbyes are exchanged as you and your partner depart to begin your married life together, filled with love, joy, and memories to cherish forever.