FAQs

How many rooms do you have?

We have 27 rooms in total, sleeping approximately 66 guests. One of these is the Honeymoon Suite, reserved for the happy couple. There's a lovely mix of accommodation to suit all tastes — from luxurious suites to cosy woodland yurts with a glamping twist..

How many people can you accomodate in each room?

Most of our rooms sleep two guests. We also have four family rooms – each sleeps 2 adults and 2 children under 16, four extra beds – available for children under 16 in selected larger rooms and four cots – suitable for babies (we kindly ask that parents bring their own bedding).

Are there additional costs for adding more children into each room?

Yes. Family rooms and extra beds carry an additional charge, which covers set-up, linen, and breakfast. Cot beds are complimentary, but we ask that parents bring bedding with them. Our extra beds and children's beds are smaller in size and have a lower weight capacity. To ensure all guests enjoy a good night's sleep, we do ask that the age limits are respected.

What is available in each room?

Other than a warm and comfy space with the dreamiest pillows, we also have toiletries, towels and radios. Each room has access to tea and coffee making facilities. Hair dryers, irons and ironing boards are available on request. A nights stay also includes a delicious continental and hot Full Welsh Breakfast the following morning.

What time is check in and check out?

Check-in is from 2pm, and check-out is 10am or 11am on Sundays. If there is no wedding the day before, we may be able to offer an earlier check-in from 12pm — we'll confirm this closer to the time.

Is there changing facilities for guests?

We are unable to offer separate changing rooms — we want to ensure every space is perfectly prepared for arrivals. We recommend guests arrive ready or pop into nearby Llangollen for a drink and to use local facilities. That said, if we're able to offer a 12pm check-in and the ceremony is from 1pm onwards, this should allow extra time.

How do we book a room?

Each Wedding couple will have access to a personalised Wedding page to share details of their day with guests as well as being able to reserve or book rooms.
